Jeffery Pietrzyk, Sr. Responds to the Filing of a Criminal Information

Williamsville, New York, September 20, 2019 – Jeffery Pietrzyk, Sr. of Grand Island, New York, was charged via criminal information with conspiracy to commit honest services fraud and money laundering offenses. The charges relate back to Mr. Pietrzyk’s time as Administrative Assistant to the Center for Human Resources in Detroit, Michigan. Mr. Pietrzyk held this position at the CHR from 2010 until he retired in July 2014.

Pietrzyk’s attorney, Robert C. Singer, Esq., of Singer Legal PLLC, stated, “Jeff and I are aware of the charges that were filed in the Eastern District of Michigan today. I have been working with the government to resolve Jeff’s involvement in this matter. The filing of this information is the first step in that process. I will reserve further comment until after Jeff enters his pleas to the charges. However, at this time, I believe it is important to note the following: According to the government’s allegations in the information, Jeff’s involvement in this scheme is much more limited in time and scope than his named and unnamed co-defendants.”
